a) Results are announced on Sunday, October 4, 2026, at 4:00 p.m., in the presence of exhibitors.

b) Prizes may not be exchanged or refunded.

c) Results may be published in local and national media.

Article 15 / Authorization for Distribution:

For the purpose of promoting the Festival, the exhibitor grants the organizer and the association the right to reproduce their work without compensation, without limitation of duration or medium, and to publish their first and last name.

The association reserves the right to edit, publish and distribute a Festival catalogue, in paper and/or digital format, intended to promote the event and the exhibiting artists.

To this end, each exhibitor grants the association and the organizer free authorization to reproduce and represent their selected works in said catalogue, without limitation of duration, medium or territory, with mention of the artist's name.

This authorization is granted without financial consideration and gives rise to no remuneration under copyright law.

Publication of the catalogue shall give rise to no claim, objection or request for compensation from the exhibitor.

Article 16 / Right of Access to Information:

The information collected is exclusively intended for the promotion of the Festival.

a) In accordance with the French Data Protection Act of January 6, 1978, the exhibitor has the right to access, modify and delete personal data concerning them. Any request must be sent by mail to:

Conceptalia, 146 boulevard des Bruyères, 83380 Les Issambres, France.

Article 17 / Dispute Resolution:

- a) Participation in the Festival implies full and unconditional acceptance of the present regulations, which shall be binding between the parties.
- b) The association is not required to justify selection choices or the awarding of prizes. No claim shall be admissible.
- c) The association shall rule sovereignly on all matters relating to the application of these regulations or any issue not expressly provided for herein.
- d) No dispute shall be admissible more than one month after the closing of the Festival.
- e) Proven fraud or attempted cheating by an exhibitor, notably through the creation of false identities, may result in expulsion and legal proceedings.
- f) The parties undertake to seek an amicable resolution to any dispute relating to the interpretation or execution of these regulations.
- g) In the event of litigation, the Administrative Court of Toulon shall have jurisdiction. The present regulations are governed by French law.
- h) The exhibitor declares having read the present regulations, which are binding upon them, and undertakes to submit a signed copy bearing the mention "read and approved" to the association.
